

A light gray world map with a grid overlay is centered in the background of the slide. The map shows the continents of North America, South America, Europe, Africa, Asia, and Australia.

Differences and Similarities in Safety and Security Topics to Line Carriers

Brigitte Wieselthaler

JETALLIANCE Flight Training

Head of Training Services

Differences and Similarities in Safety Topics to Line Carriers

Contents

- My Entrance into Aviation
- Airline Experience
- Back to Business Aviation
- Legal Basis and the Problems
 - Duty Times
 - Non Applicability of Certain Regulations
- Fleet Mixture
- Calls and Communication
 - CRM
- The Future?

My Entrance into Aviation

- my relation to aviation
- first steps into business aviation
- first profession
- attitude to safety and security

Differences and Similarities in Safety Topics to Line Carriers

Airline Experience

- change to airline business
- change in safety and security attitude

Back to Business Aviation

- back to the roots
- new attitude meets old habits
- easy acceptance and difficult implementation

Legal Basis and the Problems

- EU-OPS
 - „company representative“ vs. flight attendant
- Duty Times
 - pre- and post flight duties
- Non Applicability of Certain Regulations
 - familiarisations flights

Differences and Similarities in Safety Topics to Line Carriers

Fleet Mixture

- Citations, Falcons, Gulfstreams, Learjets, ...
- chain of command

Calls and Communication

- communication between flight deck & cabin crew
- call outs in emergency situations
 - manufacturers' checklists
- CRM, the solution?

Differences and Similarities in Safety Topics to Line Carriers

The Future?

- creation of safety and security mindset
- sales arguments
 - luxury
 - necessity

Happy Landings!

